Government Resources:

How do I renew my current SNAP and/or Medicaid benefits?

Current SNAP and Medicaid recipients will have their benefits renewed automatically. No further action is necessary, and recipients will be notified by mail when it is time for them to renew their benefits. More information can be found at <https://www.yourtexasbenefits.com/Learn/Home>.

How do I renew government benefits other than SNAP and Medicaid?

Texas Health and Human Services is encouraging Texans to submit benefit applications and other paperwork online at <https://yourtexasbenefits.com/> or via the "Your Texas Benefits" mobile app. Through the website or the mobile app, Texans can:

- Create a new account;
- Find their username on existing account;
- Upload files;
- Update their phone number; and

- Report changes.

How do residential customers sign up for utility assistance relief?

The customer must contact the Low-Income List Administrator (“LILA”). “The residential customer must provide LILA an attestation of unemployment (to be followed by documentation of unemployment within 30 days) and sufficient information to identify the customer’s electric service account (e.g., service address, account number, and telephone number).”

The LILA will then determine which customers are eligible for the COVID-19 Electricity Relief Program, and retail electric providers will stop submitting orders to disconnect services for those customers. <https://www.texastribune.org/2020/03/26/texas-bans-utility-shut-offs-during-coronavirus-outbreak/>
